Coleman Town Council Announces Rate of 65 Mills For This Year's Budget

On Friday last the regular meeting of the Coleman Town Council was held with the majority of members being in attendance.

In the council chambers before the meeting got underway at 8 o'clock a delegation of around six citizens from the north-east section of the town met the present members and discussed with them the waterworks servicing of the property. In this discussion it was contended that for a long time the people of this part of the town had been trying to get water service, but had met with no advantage, as for years the system had not been in the hands of the town. During the discussion it was pointed out that in past summers many wells upon which the residents had depended for water had gone dry leaving them with a serious water shortage. Following the talk, the council said it was going to take immediate action in dealing with the problem, and that the Light and Water Committee would likely present its findings at the next meeting to be held on Thursday next.

Have Building Permit By-Law
An error in the press report of the previous meeting was pointed out in regard to building permits of the town, in which it was stated that the town had no such by-law. The town has such a by-law, but in respect to the granting of permits, it was proposed by some members that in granting the permits, the work to be undertaken should be outlined to the one granting same.

Firearms, Motorists, Etc.
One of the most serious matters contended with by the general public was brought before the meeting in response to a letter from the Coleman Board of Trade. In this matter was the use of rifles, air guns, etc., within the town limits by minors. It was pointed out in a letter from R.C.M.P. Sgt. Murray, that in regard to such firearms, air guns, etc., the law forbids the use, or sale of such arms to anyone under the age of 14 years, also the sale of ammunition for such arms to minors under 14 years. In this respect the law was that anyone over that age who supplied the minor with the arms or ammunition for the same, whether the parents or dealer, could be held responsible for the breach of the outlined law. In discussing the matter it was pointed out, that many street lights had been smashed by minors using such arms, and that even at the Coleman Cemetery many stones and flower containers had been broken by same.

Also in connection with the Board of Trade letter, the check-up on motorists for non-dimming of lights and speeding would be started immediately.

Town Employees Wages to Be Made Twice Per Month

Another matter to receive prompt attention, was that of town employees who had written regarding time of receiving pay cheques, which at present was one per month. It was decided that in future, such employees would be in receipt of wages twice per month, the 4th and 20th.

Budget Calls for 65 Mill Rate

Dealing with the yearly budget, it was decided that the mill rate be set at 65. Allowance of $20,500 being for school purposes, and $20,000 for town affairs. In this connection the deduction of 10% would be allowed on taxes paid on or before August 10, on taxes for school or town purposes for the year. Such deductions cannot be allowed on payments of hospital tax.

Sewage Disposal of Grand Union

The sewage disposal system of the Grand Union hotel was again brought up, and the call for its removal from the present vicinity of the arena was made urgent. It was decided that the town mayor phone to the provincial sanitary inspector for him to come to Coleman immediately and investigate the situation, as any more delay in the matter would hinder necessary action.

Clean Up Week Set for May 30 to June 4

The annual Clean Up Week for local citizens property was decided upon to be held between May 30 and June 4.

In regard to Clean Up Week, it is pointed out that this annual feature of any town is most important, as the clean town is the most liked town. If the local residents will take this effort to heart, and see that their own yards and alleys are cleaned of past accumulation of debris, it will add to the wholesomeness of the town, and will not only be of better use to themselves and neighbours, but will be a boost for the town in the welcoming of the visitor.

It was decided that during the months of July and August the council will meet but once a month, except for the necessity of any special meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. "Jack" Johnston Celebrate Golden Wedding

Local I.O.O.F. Hall Centre of Gathering of 175 Friends and Relatives To Pay Honor to Esteemed Couple on Occasion of Fiftieth Anniversary.

Saturday, May 21, 1949 was a day that will ever be remembered by Mr. and Mrs. "Jack" Johnston, when in the evening some 175 old friends and members of the family travelled from near and far to take part in the honor extended to them, on the celebration of their half century of wedded life.

At the opening of the evening's activities Mr. Joe Emmerson, chairman, made an address to the honored guests and friends assembled, and proposed a toast to the bride and groom of half a century.

As the banquet commenced, Mr. Emmerson led in the saying of Grace. The banquet was prepared and served by ladies of the Royal Purple, who had worked unceasingly for many hours in organizing and preparing it, under the supervision of Mrs. Ethel Kostelnik, and their efforts were rewarded by the appreciation and enjoyment of all assembled.

The tables were decorated with pink and white carnations, with place cards and serviettes with name of bride and groom and date of May 21, 1899-1949. The table of the honored guests was centered with a beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake commemorating the occasion, the cake being served to those present at conclusion of the banquet, the bride of 50 years cutting the cake.

Mr. Joe Emmerson in an address, spoke of the high esteem in which the Johnston family were held in his many years acquaintance, and in conclusion he called upon the long-time friend and neighbor of the Johnston's, Mr. Dave Gillespie, to do the honors in presenting to Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, the gifts of the assembly, a leather handbag with a deposit of gold coins, a wallet containing gold coins, a pipe and tobacco pouch. In responding to the gifts and well wishes of the gathering Mr. Johnston stated he was overwhelmed at the honors paid him and his wife on this memorable occasion. He also dealt briefly and humorously of May 21st of fifty years ago, and told about their first taking up residence in Coleman in 1905, and their long years of meeting and making friends here, and the raising of their family, who were born in Coleman.

Another short speech was made by Mr. Wm. Haysom, who had been a neighbor of the family for many years.

Mr. J. J. McIntyre made a short address, stating the great pleasure of being present on this happy occasion.

During the delightful program songs were sung by the following: Mrs. Ethel Kostelnik "Bless This House", Mr. G. Rees of Blairmore, "Anniversary Song", and "When You and I Were Young Maggie", Mr. H. Drew, "Mary of Argyll" and "When Your Hair is Turned to Silver". These artists were accompanied by Miss Joan Johnston.

Orchestral numbers and community singing was enjoyed by all. Mrs. J. Holyk entertained in a gypsy dance, wearing a full dress costume.

Mrs. W. Martland entertained with a clog dance, which was delightfully received.

Five telegrams were received and read by Mr. J. Emmerson from well wishing friends from various points who were unable to be present.

Before the dance which was to follow the program, the sons and daughters of the honored pair were called upon to say a few words, and all seven of them from either here or other cities very aptly and pleasingly responded.

Mrs. Walter Purvis, in her response to the request for a speech, stated her great appreciation to all her friends throughout the Pass who had helped to make the occasion such a great success, and how she and her brother Bill living in Coleman, had dreamed of holding this reunion in this, their old home town, and its realization on the occasion had made such dreams come true.

At this time presentation of beautiful bouquets of roses were made to Mr. and Mrs. David Gillespie and Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Wilson, who have recently celebrated a golden wedding anniversary, with little Jane Turner making the presentation, following which Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie responded to a call for a duet, which was greatly received by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Came to Coleman in 1905

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston were married in Crosby Villa, Cumberland, England on May 21, 1899, Mrs. Johnston's maiden name being Jane Mounsey. There were eight members of the family, since moving to Coleman in 1905, of which one, the oldest boy George, was killed in the McGillivray mine explosion of 1926. Of the seven remaining members, two still live in Coleman, Mrs. Polly Purvis, and brother Bill Johnston, who is manager in Blairmore of Plunket & Savage. The others being Mrs. Irene Adams of Toronto, Mrs. Sally Turner of Rapid City, Manitoba; Babs Johnston and brother Dick of Los Angeles, California; Jimmie Johnston of Vancouver, B.C., CBC radio artist, all of whom were at the anniversary celebration, along with them were the following grand children: Stanley, Joan and Jane, also one great-grandson. The other two grand children Betty and Carole were unable to attend due to school duties.

Mrs. Edward of Los Angeles accompanied Dick and Mrs. Babs Johnston by car, while Babs came by plane unable to leave his business earlier.

Mrs. Mary Gunpiss who now lives at Nanaimo, B.C. was bridesmaid of fifty years ago, and was present at the anniversary.

Mr. Johnston was the original secretary of the United Mine Workers Union. He was also on the hospital board and instigated the building of the first hospital here. The opera house, which was used as a community hall, and in which were shown the first movies and road shows, was also initiated by him. He was secretary of the hospital board until 1920, and during that year was mayor of Coleman.

At this time he owned and operated the first pool hall in Coleman, and was owner of the grocery store where Park's Grocery now stands.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston now reside in Vancouver, with Jack taking a most enthusiastic interest in football, attending every available game, for in his early days here he was goal keeper on the Coleman football team.

The many friends of the honored couple wish them years more of wedded happiness.

Red Shield Appeal To Start Monday Next

The Crows Nest Pass campaign for the annual Red Shield Appeal will take place commencing on Monday, May 30. The canvass will be under the direction of Lieutenants E. Burkholder and R. Chapman, district officers here.

The Salvation Army does a job in Canada and Alberta that no other organization will attempt. During the last year no less than 144 unmarried mothers from 51 communities were assisted. Over 137 children from 25 communities were cared for through the services of the Army. Two social service departments and men's hostels assisted 6,000 persons in family welfare, prison gate, police court, social problems, and case work was carried on during the year. The operational costs for the institutions and social departments work amounting to $277,723.30.

The residents of the Pass have been very generous in the support of previous Red Shield campaigns, the Red Cross and Canadian Cancer Society.

In the opinion of a great number of people here, the work of the Salvation Army equals in importance the Red Cross or Cancer drives. Therefore, local citizens and others of the Pass are urged to give generously to the drive which gets underway next week.

The quota set for the Crows Nest Pass is $1350.00 of which amount more than one third is expected to come from Coleman, or $550. Knowing the Army's outstanding work here and throughout Canada, we feel that the Army will have little trouble in reaching or bettering its quota here.

Wealth In Minerals

A BRIGHT FUTURE FOR Canada's mining industry is predicted by all those who are familiar with that subject. At present mining is one of our most important industries and Canada stands high among other countries in the production of metals. At a recent convention of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy it was reported that the total value of the output of our mines in 1948 was $484,000,000. This was a record figure, but it was said to be partly due to the fact that prices are now at high levels. However, there were also indications of increases in the volume of production, and it was announced that Canada holds first position in the production of nickel, platinum and asbestos, second in gold and zinc, third in silver and copper, and fourth in lead.

Important To Entire Nation

Considering that Canada is a young country and that many of our mineral resources are just beginning to be developed, it is clear why there is so much confidence in the future of the mining industry. In addition to those products which have already been mentioned there are the Western oil fields which give promise of making Canada one of the world's richest sources of petroleum. There are also the great iron ore deposits in Labrador, which have yet to be developed and which are expected to produce a large part of the world's supply of that metal. Added to these are many areas, as yet to be opened up, but believed to be rich in minerals of various kinds.

Will Someday Bring Wealth

While all these resources are primarily of importance to the mining industry, the wealth which it is anticipated that they will someday bring into the country will affect our entire economy. Mr. Lawrence Steinhart, American Ambassador to Canada pointed out in a recent address that Alberta oil might permanently solve Canada's foreign exchange problem, since the dollars which have been spent for American oil could be used to buy other products which we cannot purchase now. The rich resources which have already been developed and the promise of perhaps even greater ones still to be discovered are important to the future of Canada. Through them new employment will be created, tax revenues will be increased and foreign trade will benefit. Canadians will follow with interest the progress of this great industry and no doubt its effect on the national economy will increase steadily.

SALMON ARM.—Thrill of a lifetime stuff. While dining a hay field, A. E. Long of nearby Mount Ida found $600 he lost last year. ### FARMER LOSES MULE TRYING TO CORRECT ITS BAD HABIT

CHESTER, S.C.—Farmer R. M. Massey's mule had the bad habit of leaning against a wire fence. Massey ran a wire from an electric pump to the fence to shock Mr. Mule into mending his ways. But the animal was standing in a puddle of water when he touched the wire. Now Massey is looking for another mule.

FUNNY And OTHERWISE

Editor: "Did you write this poem yourself?"

Poet: "Every line of it."

Editor: "Then I'm very pleased to meet you, Edgar Allan Poe. I thought you were dead."

Boss: "How come you're only carrying one sack, when the other men are carrying two?"
Workman: "Well, I suppose they're too lazy to make two trips, the way I do."

Young Man—"What's the difference between a taxi and a bus?"

His Girl—"I don't know."

Young Man—"Good. Then we'll take a bus."

"Did the burglars wake you last night?"

"Oh, no! They took things very quietly."

Mother: "But, Freddy, if you earache is better, why do you keep on crying?"

Freddy: "I'm waiting for d-daddy to come home. He's never s-seen me with an earache."

"Dick," said his mother, "I wish you would run across the street and see how old Mrs. Rush is."

"Yes'm," said Dick.

He bounced back in a few minutes and said, "Mrs. Rush says it's none of your business how old she is."

Proud Parent: "So you wish to become my son-in-law, do you?"

The Swain: "To be strictly correct, sir, I don't; but if I marry your daughter, I don't see how I can get out of it."

The long-winded orator asked a listener how he had liked his speech.

"It was a grand speech," said the little man from the audience.

"And what impressed you particularly, may I ask?"

"I would say it was your perseverance; the way you said the same thing over and over."

Village Constable (to motorist in head-on collision: "Now, gentlemen, I want to know which of your two cars hit the other first."

Teacher: "Come, now. Define capital for us."

Student, after thinking it over: "Well, capital's the money the other fellow has."

Teacher: "Good! Now, what's labor?"

Student, brightly: "Trying to get any of it away from him."

Predicts We'll Watch Fires Sitting At Home

REGINA.—It won't be long before the progress of a large-scale fire in Vancouver will be watched by people in Edmonton while flames still are blazing, Ralph Foster of Ottawa, executive officer of the National Film Board, predicted.

He told members of the Association of Canadian Fire Marshals in convention here that before long television will bring pictures of fires into Canadian homes. This would be a means of underlining the enormous damage and waste of life and property through fire.

WORLD HAPPENINGS BRIEFLY TOLD

Immigration should boost Australian population to 8,000,000 before the end of next year, according to the immigration minister.

Cmdr. Michael G. Stirling of Kelowna, B.C., has been appointed director of naval communications, naval headquarters announced.

Fewer Canadians were paying cash on the line and increasing numbers were buying new and used cars on credit, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported.

American tourists are expected to spend $150,000,000 in Britain this year, according to James Maxwell, general manager of a world travel agency.

The Belgian chamber of deputies has ratified the Atlantic treaty. Although not announced, the vote was understood to have been 139 to 22, with one abstention.

Rev. J. E. Williams, 74, of Bath, Eng., was shocked and bruised when the tank on his church bell broke. He was hauled 20 feet into the air and thrown back again.

Port Residents Have Long Way To Bank Money

CHURCHILL, Man.—Residents of this northern port on the west shore of Hudson Bay, 600 miles northeast of Winnipeg, have a long way to go to make bank deposits. The nearest bank is at The Pas, Man., 510 miles southwest.

To make things even more difficult there is no paved highway between Churchill and The Pas. The tractor train that commutes once weekly between the two centres passes over a route studded with lakes, bush and muskeg.

There has been no bank at Churchill since shortly after construction of harbour and port facilities. Rapid growth of the settlement, recent construction activity and clamor to have more wheat shipped through the port have given added impetus to the demand for re-establishment of one or more banks in Churchill.

The local chamber of commerce is reported to be seeking representations to the Canadian Bankers' association to have banks located here. A limited preliminary survey undertaken by the chamber showed savings accounts would amount to approximately $3,300,000.

Building Concrete Walks

CONCRETE walks should have good drainage, therefore, the first step in building them is to dig a trench 11 or 12 inches deep below the ground line and 6 ins. wider than the width of the walk. Fill this trench with 6 inches of crushed stone, gravel or cinders. Ashes are not suitable for this kind of filling.

Next, set up the forms for the edges of the walk, bracing them with stakes driven into the ground on the outside of the planks. These forms should be of the same height as the concrete depth desired. A concrete slab 5 or 6 inches deep is sufficient for a good concrete walk.

These walks may be made in a single course, all of the same mixture, or a 2-course construction may be used. The latter is possibly somewhat cheaper.

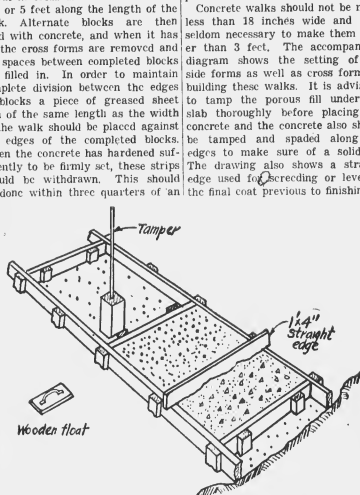

Where a 5-inch depth of concrete is desired 2-inch planks 5 inches wide should be used for the forms. They are set on edge and tacked to the stakes, care being taken to have them levelled from side to side.

These walks must be divided into blocks so that possible heaving by frost will not crack them promiscuously, and to do this is a good idea to put in cross divisions at intervals of 4 or 5 feet along the length of the walk. Alternate blocks are then filled with concrete, and when it has set the cross forms are removed and the spaces between completed blocks are filled in. In order to maintain complete division between the edges of blocks a piece of greased sheet iron of the same length as the width of the walk should be placed against the edges of the completed blocks. When the concrete has hardened sufficiently to be firmly set, these strips should be withdrawn. This should be done within three quarters of an hour after placing the first concrete. For single course walks use a mixture of 1 part cement to 2½ parts sand and 3½ parts crushed stone or pebbles.

Where a 2-course walk is to be built it is best to fill the forms to within an inch of the surface with a mixture of one part of cement to 3 parts of sand and 5 parts of crushed stone or screened pebbles. After a few of these blocks have been filled it is best to mix a batch of finish coat, and where a little too much the top, the surface being either smoothed with a wooden float or a plasterer's trowel. Care should be taken in all concrete work not to use any more water than is best for the making of good concrete. This is particularly true of the finish coat, and where a little too much water has been used, trowelling with a steel trowel should not be attempted for 20 or 30 minutes if free water is drawn to the surface when the trowel is used. The edges of a finish coat may be rounded with a corner finishing tool, and this should also be used over the dividing lines between blocks in the first or rough coat of concrete. For the finish coat use a mixture of 1 part cement to 3 parts of sand.

Concrete walks should not be made less than 18 inches wide and it is seldom necessary to make them wider than 3 feet. The accompanying diagram shows the setting of the side forms as well as cross forms in building these walks. It is advisable to tamp the porous fill under the slab thoroughly before placing the concrete and the concrete also should be tamped and spaded along the edges to make sure of a solid fill. The drawing also shows a straight edge used for screeding or leveling the final coat previous to finishing it.

Church Superintendent Honored On Retirement

The Board of Home Missions of the United Church of Canada recently honoured Rev. R. J. McDonald, D.D., Superintendent of Missions for Southern Saskatchewan and Southern Alberta, who has reached the age of retirement. Dr. McDonald was presented with a brief case.

In addition to the members of the Board of Home Missions, General Officers of the Church and their wives were present. Rev. A. Lloyd Smith, D.D., Chairman of the Board, presided. The presentation was made by Mr. Fred Mann, Dr. George Dorey, Secretary of the Board, who made the presentation address, said that there was a note of sadness in the occasion as Dr. McDonald had reached the age of retirement and would be severing his connection with the active work of the Church. He spoke of his long association with Dr. McDonald and of the factors that had gone into making one of the best known and best loved men in the Church, particularly in the west—his hereditary training and his consecration. Dr. Dorey said that Dr. McDonald possessed great intellectual ability, wise statesmanship and, above all, the grace of God.

Superstition Means Extra Wash Days

VANCOUVER.—Because of superstition, Trinidad native women have three wash days each week.

Mrs. Fred J. Partridge, en route to Australia with her husband after 18 months in Trinidad says the superstition may keep the females healthy but it's tough for their employers.

"Servants won't iron on the same day they wash," she said. "Their superstition is that they will get fever if they do both chores on the same day—so we have three laundry days—two for washing and one for ironing."

Stories Told Of Terror, Heroism And Heartbreak In Battling Forest Fires

CANYON CREEK, Alta. — Stories of terror, heroism and heartbreak in battling a forest fire circulated through this tiny settlement 182 miles northwest of Edmonton.

Many lost their homes when the wind-driven fire raced through the sparsely settled area on the south shore of Lesser Slave lake.

One of the fire victims, Mrs. W. A. Rosenau, told of the terror when a "shower of fiery hail" suddenly struck her home.

Thinking there was no danger, the Rosenau were carrying on as usual at their two-story log dwelling a few hundred yards from the south shore of the lake. Smoke was thick but there appeared to be no danger. Mr. Rosenau was working in the yard and the three small children were playing in the yard.

"I heard a distant rumble like a freight train," Mrs. Rosenau said. "We looked to the west and could hardly believe our eyes. A big wall of flame was rushing toward us. My husband yelled for me to help carry some of the furniture from the house into the yard. He had hopes of being able to get some of it to a safe place. But we didn't have a chance."

"The children were scared and almost suffocating from the terrific heat of the advancing fire. My husband told me to beat it with the youngsters toward the highway and I did."

"The fire was upon us almost before you could tell about it. It was useless to attempt saving the house and other buildings. It even burned the clothes in my wash tub. I saved half a towel out of the whole wash," she said. She still has the scorched piece of towel as a grim souvenir of the ordeal.

"The blazing embers, driven ahead of the fire by the terrific wind sounded for all the world like hail as they hit the roofs of the buildings," Rosenau declared.

"I never want to go through anything so terrifying again," he added. The flames levelled the Rosenau home and sheds and raced further eastward where they wiped out the home of Waldo Francis and his wife.

Four horses were burned to death at the Francis place along with approximately 75 milk and 15 sheep. Francis had opened the door of his barn when he saw the fire coming.

Turkey Industry Growth In British Columbia Is Beyond Expectations

THE turkey industry in British Columbia has in the last few years grown beyond the expectations of even the most enthusiastic turkey breeders. Breeding flocks have gone from a few dozen birds until at the present time there are a number of flocks of well over a thousand breeding hens.

There are good reasons for this rapid increase in the turkey population of British Columbia. Prices during the last four or five years have been high and stable, and by the use of the slatted or wire porch losses in growing birds have been sharply reduced.

The raising of turkeys on slatted porches is not a new idea but until recently it has not been widely used by British Columbia turkey growers. Turkeys are susceptible to diseases caused by over-crowding and by contaminated surroundings and the slatted porch has proved to be the means whereby large numbers of birds can be raised on a limited area. Besides protecting the birds from filthy diseases, the slatted porch also provides protection from predatory animals.

While the coastal section of British Columbia is in many ways most favourable for the breeding of turkeys, there are a number of regions in the interior that growing of turkeys for market are a profitable supplement to the farm income. The British Columbia Department of Agriculture has adopted a Turkey Improvement Policy similar to the one that has been in use for chickens for many years. This step was taken to protect the buyer of poultry and assure him that the poultry bought from an approved breeder or hatchery had come from breeding stock that had met the minimum requirements of the Department of Agriculture.

Through the increase and improvement of the turkey industry of the province, British Columbia is now in the happy position of exporting thousands of eggs to the Prairie provinces, and elsewhere. British Columbia can boast of more commercial poultry-raising than any other province of Canada, and the production of poultry and eggs are valued at millions of dollars each year.

KITCHEN MEDITATIONS THE HUNTER

By JANE DALE

A fair young lad went hunting. A brave bold hunter was he. He clutched his trusty repeater As he went forth fearlessly.

Through the tall meadow grasses, Down a hollow, then up to a knoll, He crept to where a pert gopher Stuck its head up out of a hole.

"BANG!" went the trusty repeater. Down plunged the prey out of sight. The hunter laughed with joyous glee. He had given that gopher a fright! The fair young hunter kept hunting. A brave bold hunter was he. Until the sun was setting, Then he hurried home for tea!

BANK CREDIT oils the driving gears of production, industry and commerce. It helps to produce the goods and provide the services and jobs which mark the Canadian way of life.

"Money in the bank" is the foundation of credit. You and some seven million other depositors have nearly seven billion dollars in the chartered banks.

To pay for work done, goods produced, bought and sold, Canadians issue—every month—upwards of six billion dollars in cheques.

Cashing these cheques, making loans, discounting notes—in many different ways your bank keeps money and credit moving through all the channels of trade and opportunity... like oil in the machinery.

This whole vast, private, competitive, efficient process is made possible by your "money in the bank"—and by the experience and skill and integrity of the men and women on Canadian bank staffs.

DO YOU KNOW about TRAVEL RATION REGULATIONS?

It saves time and trouble when you familiarize yourself with the regulations regarding travel to the United States before you set out on your trip. Here are the facts:

1. The allowance for pleasure travel during the current ration period of November 16th, 1948, to November 15th, 1949, is $150 U.S. per person ($100 in the case of children under 11 years old).
2. A Form H permit, obtainable at any bank, is required to take out of Canada amounts exceeding $10 U.S. or $25 U.S. and Canadian funds.
3. Special allowances are granted for strictly business travel where your application is certified by your employer.
4. Applications for larger amounts of U.S. funds for travel for health or educational purposes may be made on special forms obtainable at any bank.

Army Week

Across the land, in hamlet, village, town and city this year's "Army Week" promises to be bigger and better.

In all localities of Western Command, Alberta and British Columbia, where active or reserve force units are established May 15 to 22 is the week when westerners can meet the men of the Army. Following weeks of preparation "Army Week" units are ready to show how they live and work. This is the year's show when the Army is given the chance of showing some of the constructive jobs being done in peacetime years.

Last year the active and reserve forces played host to more than 6,000,000 interested visitors during the first annual display and demonstration. In Edmonton, the Prince of Wales Armouries was packed every night. Calgary featured the Army on the sports fields, through city streets and at firing demonstrations in the country. Vancouver had the Pacific National Exposition to gather the crowds.

From Blairmore to Grande Prairie in Alberta and from Kelowna to Prince George in British Columbia, your local unit invites you to "Army Week".

ARMY CADETS CAMP

Royal Canadian Army Cadets from Corps in Alberta and British Columbia will pack their kit bags and head for the mountains this summer. Vernon, Chilliwack and Banff are the sites for this year's summer camps where about 1,300 army cadets will take their practical summer training.

Vernon is to be the scene of the largest camp from July 4 to 13 when 1,000 cadets from both provinces will gather for the Western Command concentrated training program. Last year provincial camps were held at Sarcee near Calgary and at Chilliwack in British Columbia.

Specialist training for specially selected cadets is to be given at the Trades Training Camps at Vernon and Chilliwack between 18th July and 27th August. Trades Training for cadets was successfully carried out last year at Ipperwash, Ont. and is designed to give senior cadets educational training to military and civilian standards in four specialist classes.

At the Vernon Trades Training Camp 125 cadets will take first year training in three courses. Under expert army instructors the cadets will study for qualification as driver mechanics, signallers or operators of special fire equipment. At the Royal Canadian School of Military Engineering, Chilliwack, 40 cadets will receive training as operators of special engineering equipment following a three week basic training as driver mechanics at Vernon.

Trades training for cadets is to be on a two-year basis and after successfully qualifying at 2 summer camps the cadets will be granted special trades pay should they join either the Reserve or Active Force. For each successfully completed camp cadets will receive six dollars.

One of the highlights of cadet activities in Western Command for the coming summer will be the second annual Dominion Cadet Camp at Banff, Alberta. The world famous mountain-resort centre is to be the home for 150 master cadets from all parts of Canada between 31 July and 20 August. Last year the first "holiday camp" proved highly successful for 50 cadets and this year it is being repeated on a larger scale.

ABORTIONIST

As Seen by Macleod Gazette Editor

One of the most repulsive criminal acts is that of the abortionist, of which a most flagrant case was heard in the supreme court this week in Macleod. A woman of Bellevue for $25 tried her criminal act on a young woman, which had it not been for medical aid hastily summoned when the woman was bleeding and her life was in danger, would have died in a Bellevue cafe. A six man jury, after a lengthy address by the judge, took about 30 minutes to bring in a verdict of guilty, and she was sentenced to five years in prison.

Ten years ago this same woman was charged for a similar offence but escaped conviction because the evidence was not sufficiently corroborative. It happened at that time she was up before the same trial judge as this time, Chief Justice W. R. Howson, who in sentencing her for this later offence took into consideration the fact that her health was impaired, otherwise a heavier sentence would have been imposed.

The judge's view was that an abortionist is a potential murderer, and that the punishment must fit the crime, which in extreme cases could be a life sentence.

Crown Prosecutor Harper Prowse conducted the Crown's case and M. E. Muscovitch, K.C., of Lethbridge, was defence counsel.

WAISTS AWAY

Big waistlines have a habit of developing behind big desks. For many office workers, recreation consists of walking from the streetcar stop to the elevator and from the elevator to the desk. All sedentary employees need some form of exercise to keep their muscles from becoming weak and flabby. Walking to work in the morning is often a good way to keep in trim.

The population of Newfound-land, 320,000, is less than that of Greater Vancouver.

The first known international telephone connection was made by submarine cable between Windsor and Detroit in 1881. At present rates a railway boxcar has earned less than 90 per cent of its replacement value by the time it is retired from service.

Manager Frank R. Duncanson Transferred To High River

It was learned to the regret of many residents that the local manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce was to be transferred to High River in similar capacity. Mr. Frank R. Mr. Duncanson was a member of the Lions club and Coleman Board of Trade, while Mrs. Duncanson was conductress on the Coleman Choral Society, and was responsible for the noted revival of interest in choral music.

The date of the transfer while not set will likely be during the coming week.

J. R. Hill of the Lethbridge branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce will succeed Mr. Duncanson here, and was a visitor here over the weekend accompanied by his wife, and two sons Michael 9 and Bryce 5, who will soon take up local residence.

FLYING DANGER

By far the majority of industrial accidents affecting the eyes are caused by flying particles and industrial health experts assert that in the great majority of these cases injury could have been prevented if the proper precautions had been taken. Almost every industrial accident involving the sight of a worker is due to neglect on the part of someone.

No. 1 MENACE TO LIVESTOCK AND GAME

A radio commentator on a Western (U.S.) broadcast remarked that drouth was agriculture's number one enemy, but that the coyote now appears to be taking second place. In recent months, reports from farmers all over Alberta indicate that losses in sheep, young cattle, fowl and deer have reached a grave all-time record. Something must be done to control this marauding outlaw while its breeding grounds and lairs are easily accessible.

The individual farmer, while somewhat handicapped by restriction laws and fence lines can at least, be on the alert to destroy all coyotes in his own immediate area. The creatures are hard to trap, snare or poison, even where such measures are allowed. The use of planes, wolf hounds, etc., have been quite effective in open country. In bush lands they cannot do much. Whether a combination of trained trappers, or adequate bounty payments to induce amateurs to take an interest, are the answers, it still remains that an aggressive campaign on the part of both farmers and Government is desirable.

Rev. R. Magowan, D.D., Pastor.

12.15 noon, Sunday school.
7.30 p.m. Mr. Robert Woods.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING
ST. ALBAN'S CHURCH

Though attendance was cut down by bad weather, a very successful meeting of St. Alban's congregation was held immediately following the evening service last Sunday. Mr. Harold Turner outlined the pressing need of attention to the church roof. After some discussion it was decided that this be attended to during the present summer, and that the whole congregation be appealed to for help. If any balance remains, the vestry are authorized to raise a loan, and the women's organizations are asked to endeavour to see that this loan is retired within a year. The materials used are to be of the best, so that the roof may be put in good condition for many years to come.

Mr. Dewdney then outlined plans for a new altar and the enlargement and improvement of the present Chancel, towards which support has already been promised by the Women's Association and others.

FOUR LIVING GENERATIONS

Mrs. G. Palms of Pentticon, B.C., and great grand daughter Gale Palms. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke seem to proudly set a record of being great grandparents. Mr. Clarke being only 65 years of age.

Mission will be widely advertised later.

It was decided to invite the congregation of St. Luke's Church, Blairmore to join in a combined picnic some Sunday in June, this to include the usual Sunday school picnics, and to end with a combined open-air service.

The Vicar then called on Mr. Sid Short to say a few words on behalf of the congregation. Mr. Short spoke in fitting terms of the many years during which Mr. Frank Graham had carried on as Warden of St. Alban's church, and had borne the burden of the business side of the church's work almost single-handed. He asked him to accept on behalf of St. Alban's congregation a small token of their gratitude and appreciation. He then presented him with a beautiful copy of the Hymn and Prayer Book, suitably inscribed, and an automatic fishing reel. Mr. Graham expressed his thanks and was obviously pleased and touched. Mrs. Hoyle, the president of the Ladies Guild then presented Mrs. Graham with a set of matching dress ornaments on behalf of the congregation as the one who had been the "push" behind Mr. Graham in his work for the parish.

The meeting concluded with prayer and refreshments.

DERAILED AT CURVE—An engineer and a fireman were killed, and a third railwayman fatally injured recently, when a passenger train jumped the tracks about 40 miles from Edmonton, Alta. Both the fireman and the engineer had to be cut from the twisted mass of steel with acetylene torches. Here cars of the wrecked train are down the embankment and a broken rail can be seen in the foreground. The locomotive overturned and half-buried itself in a ten-foot embankment into which it plunged, hauling an express car, refrigerator car and a day coach after it. Forty passengers in sleeping cars were uninjured, and four cars were left standing on the tracks.—S.N.S. photo.

PLENTY OF MILK AND FAT—Three-year-old Holstein heifer, Agassiz Hartog Meg, bred at Dominion Experimental Farm, Agassiz, B.C., by a sire at Ottawa, made 19,520 lbs. milk and 724 lbs. fat in 365 days.

"MAMA, I WANNA BEAT A DRUM"—David Watts, five, is the personification of the lad in the song some years back which related the lament of a violin prodigy who begged his mom to let him play the drum instead, as he watches with absorbed fascination and awe the drummer of olden times during a St. George's Day review on the artillery ground, Finsbury barracks, London, Eng. The lord mayor of London, Sir George Aylmer, was there, reviewing the "Saturday afternoon" troops—rallies, soldiers and airmen—but little David has eyes only for the drummer.—S.N.S. photo.

SCHOOL OPEN FROM BREAK-UP TO FREEZE-UP—The school term at Moon River, Ont., (near Parry Sound), starts in the spring and ends in the fall—or as the natives say, it goes from break-up to freeze-up. Mother nature is at the controls. There were 24 pupils on hand when the brown frame building on the side of a hill opened its 22nd season. From now on these students will wrestle with the three R's no matter how hot the weather gets! Here Yvonne Grisaid rings the school bell.—S.N.S. photo.

LOST SIX DAYS IN WILDS—Bill Grant of Vancouver, B.C., and Sheila Curre of Cardston, Alta., survivors of a plane crash, wandered six days in the Canadian-U.S. border wilds, made a dramatic escape from death. The rescue operations which saved them was one of the most difficult in Canadian history. The wrecked plane of the pair is seen on a mountain side in Washington state. Grant panicked the aircraft on the mountain in a blinding snowstorm on a flight from Alberta to Vancouver. Both escaped injury when the plane hit the ground. The rugged country where the search was conducted made task of rescuers difficult. Airmen who finally spotted the plane, braved countless dangers. In all, 11 aircraft flew more than 25,000 miles. About 200 R.C.A.F. members took part in operation. Heroism of three rescuers who parachuted down to lead couple out was described "beyond words".—S.N.S. photo.

One load was 1,100 feet, and the large log had 355 feet. It all went to the furniture factory at Rock Mills. The logs were mostly elm.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

"ADORATION"Frogging's Always Good
When Nobody's Been Frogging.

By ANNA E. WILSON

SHOOTING BADE felt his heart beat fast as he tried to get over to Rosa Belle's house without being seen by Frogging Pete. As he hid around the corner of Uncle Bob's house, he could still see Frogging Pete sitting on the porch across the way with his holes turned up, his torn overalls just licking his shanks and his eyes raised to a level that took in a line of shrubbery.

When he reached the back, he could still hear the mouth organ and knew that Pete hadn't moved. He wiped a couple of bees from his bare arm. Funny about bees; some they stung and some they didn't. Look at the way they crawled all over him and Uncle Bob while anyone else...

Shooting Bade reached the far corner, where he could see Rosa Belle's porch. Out back, Black Mama was doing the washing but on the porch was Rosa Belle with her hair all wavy and shiny. All that happened from Rosa Belle now was a vacant lot but the lot was in full view of Frogging Pete if he took his eyes from the shrubbery. Shooting Bade crouched low so as not to draw Pete's eyes.

He reached the porch and spoke softly, "Hello, Rosa Belle." Rosa Belle's voice was bell-like but she didn't move. Nor did the house dog. At her feet, Rosa Belle didn't move because the sound of the mouth organ had stopped and Frogging Pete was climbing up the other side of the steps. She sat, favoring neither one nor the other. Rosa Belle could sit like that for hours—until one of them got up and went away.

Shooting Bade sat whistling through his teeth and Pete took out his mouth organ and played. Shooting Bade fixed his eyes on a lizard in the sand. He thought of himself as Rosa Belle going out along the ragged woods back of Uncle Bob's.

Finally he said to Pete, "You going frogging over to Black Swamp?"

Pete removed the harmonica from his lips. "Frogging's always good when nobody's been frogging."

Shooting Bade whistled softly. Funny about frogging. It's awful easy to disturb frogs. Fellow's better to go frogging all by himself. Catch more that way."

Pete finished a bar. "Fellow needs company frogging. Black bogs in that swamp where a fellow could slip without anyone finding even his bubbles. Shooting rabbits is different."

Shooting Bade whistled a full five minutes before he spoke. "No good shooting rabbits alone. Rabbits been shot at a lot lately. Fellow needs help finding them out in holes and things."

Pete played softly, saying nothing. Rosa Belle gave vent to her feelings in a few bell-like notes. Shooting Bade noticed fearfully that the sun was getting lower. If he didn't get rid of Pete soon, he'd have practically no time to shoot before dark. Pete was in no hurry. Frog hunting was even better at night.

Shooting Bade examined the sky. "Looks like it might rain. Frogging's no good 'n' the rain. In the rain frogs just disappear under sticks and things."

Pete blew a bar of "Swanee." "Might rain," he conceded mildly. "There's no hurry about frogging."

Despair gripped Shooting Bade. Rosa Belle's eyes looked at him soft and sugary. He drew a long breath. Pete emitted a doleful note and started playing "Going Nowhere."

Shooting Bade was licked. He might as well go over to the sand lot and throw horse shoes. Rosa Belle gave voice again, bell-like and low.

Frogging Pete put away his mouth organ. He was sure he'd won. He began whistling on a forked frogging stick. Shooting Bade held his breath. In the silence, he could hear a faint buzzing above his head. He reached out and enclosed the sound in his fist. With his empty hand he idly picked up a pebble. He shot it at the lizard. It missed. He picked up another and bent forward, his eyes on the lizard. He released the bee from his closed fist, just touching Pete's neck.

Frogging Pete yelled. Shooting Bade's voice was soft with sympathy. "Nothing's any good for bee stings but mud—there's a good patch down by the canebake."

Frogging Pete was gone. Rosa Belle got up and followed Shooting Bade, who picked up his gun in passing. They started down the hot road and had almost reached the bend when they were brought up short by Black Mama's voice. Shooting Bade's heart beat fearfully lest she call them back but the mellow voice only said, "Don't let no rabbits catch you napping."

Black Mama laughed richly as girl, boy and dog disappeared round the bend.

Measure into large bowl, ½ c. lukewarm water, 1 tsp. granulated sugar, stir until sugar is dissolved. Sprinkle slowly with 1 envelope Fleischmann's Royal Fast Rising Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 min. THEN stir well. Scald 1 c. milk and stir in the granulated sugar, 2 tsp. salt, cool to lukewarm. Add to yeast mixture and stir in ½ c. lukewarm water. Beat in 3 c. once-sifted bread flour, beat well. Beat in 4 c. melted shortening. Work in 3 c. more once-sifted bread flour. Knead until smooth and elastic; place in greased bowl and brush top with melted butter or shortening. Cover and set in warm place, free from draft. Let rise until doubled in bulk. Punch down dough in bowl, grease top and let rise again until nearly doubled. Punch down dough and roll out, half at a time, into a rectangle a scant ¾" thick; lift dough, cover with cloth and let rest 5 min. Brush with melted butter or shortening; cut into strips 1½" wide. Pie 7 strips together, cut into 15½" pieces. Place outside up in greased muffin pans; separate slices a little at the top. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk. ## Hard-Working Beavers Parched flats adjoining Alberta's Clearwater Forest Reserve. The faint stream on the right hand side is the result of a beaver-made incline, dug out so it will catch all the run-off water.

After a year's work, the beavers were able to build this house in water 15 feet deep. Before that all the land was as parched as the first photo indicates.

Lethbridge Hopeful
Of New Industry

LETHBRIDGE—Southern Alberta may be selected by Eastern Canada interests as location for a basic plastics industry, according to information received here. Preliminary surveys here and in Medicine Hat have been "encouraging." Type of coal mined in the Lethbridge field lends itself to the project. Sawdust and other wood by-products of the Crow's Nest Pass area and a plentiful supply of cheap natural gas also are said attractive to the group.

RECIPES

VANILLA ICE CREAM

- 1½ cups milk
- 1½ cups coffee cream
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cup sugar
- 1 cup light corn syrup
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice

Method: Beat the eggs until thick and lemon colored. Add the sugar gradually and continue beating until this is all added. Add the milk, coffee cream, syrup and lemon juice.

Pour into a freezing tray and place in the freezing unit, having the cold control turned to quick freezing.

When frozen, remove to a bowl and then mash it before beating it until light with a rotary or an electric mixer. Add the vanilla when it is light and creamy.

Return to the freezing tray and replace in the freezing unit, allowing it to become firm.

When the mixture is firm, turn the cold control half way back to normal and keep it like this until the ice cream is to be used.

Top with meringue and brown in (400 deg. F.) oven.

Serve at once.

Safety Director Urges
Care With Boats

REGINA.—Following Saskatchewan's first boating fatality of 1949, Bevan Lawson, Red Cross swimming and water safety director, has issued a warning against carelessness in handling boats and canoes.

In the warning is an appeal to avoid overloading boats or standing up in them. Storm warnings should be heeded and no boat should be launched in rough weather.

Any person who cannot swim should never go out in a boat at all, and no boater should wear heavy clothes or boots while on the water.

Shed the boat capsize, said Mr. Lawson, passengers should remain with it and hang on. The wooden craft, he reminded, is buoyant and will float.

Curiosity Got The Best Of This Bear

FLIN FLON, Man.—

The maxim "curiosity killed the cat", apparently is applicable to bears too. Curiosity about a stove pipe led to the death of a bear in this district of northern Manitoba.

Simon Nades of Cormorant lake, 50 miles southeast of here, was walking through the woods recently when he saw a bear standing on its hind legs and waving at him. At least it looked that way.

But Nades, dubious of the bear's intentions, decided to shoot first before investigating the reason for the animal's strange behavior. He found the bear had shoved its head through a short length of stove pipe. It had not been waving at him but was trying desperately to remove the pipe that was slowly choking off its wind.

These Hats Will Be Handy For Picnic

TORONTO.—The phrase "good enough to eat" soon may be applied literally to women's bonnets.

The Ontario Bakers' Association, in convention here, introduced the new chapeaux—and they can all be eaten as well as worn.

One hat featured a pill-box blooming with roses and violets of candied icing, with pink-eyed marshmallow bunnies on top. One bonnet even supplied a spoon—perched on the hat's brim.
